PURCHASE OF BOOKS

Mrs. Frances C. Fethers, acting president of the library board, has made the following report to the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville:

The board of directors of the Janesville Public Library have the honor to report that the past year has been one of increased interest in the library and of benefit to its patrons, especially to the young children. When our last annual report was made, the children's room was still something of an experiment, having been open but four months. It is now an assured success. While the expense of retaining it has necessitated retrenchment in other directions, no one can regret this who has watched its development, and noted the good it has already accomplished.

The most important event in the history of the library has occurred this year, in the gifts of two noble men for the erection of a library building. The appropriate site so generously provided by your honorable body will enable us to add one more permanent and useful monument to our already beautiful city.

In order to increase our circulation, and reach some who have not heretofore been patrons of the library, we have sent, at intervals during the year, a case holding about fifty books on general subjects to the Janesville Barb wire company. Mr. Fred Capelle has kindly cared for the loaning and return of these volumes, and he reports a circulation of five hundred.

We have purchased this year for reasons above stated, only 366 books, but the additional appropriation granted for our use next year will enable us to add many such needed volumes to all of our departments. Thirty worn out books have been replaced, but those accumulating every year which have no lasting place in literature and are beyond the binder's skill, are sent to the county farm, where they are received with rejoicing and are read to a complete finish.

172 books have been added by gift; 142 being donated by the society of All Souls Church. These were carefully selected volumes and are most welcome, as many of them supplement and fill out sets of standard works. We wish here to express our grateful thanks for this kindness and generosity.

261 public documents and pamphlets were received, and 97 periodicals bound.

The number of books acquired were 665 making the total number accessioned 14,333.

We have kept this year for the first time an accurate account as possible of the use of the reference department, and find these books have been consulted 13,296 times.

The number of borrower's cards has increased this year from 2,500 to 3,490.

The number of books circulated was 46,904. Nearly one-third of this number is credited to the children's room, and as this department contains about one-tenth of the books in the library, its usefulness will be better understood. The greatest number of books drawn in one day was 459, and the least was 28.

The total receipts were $2,534.57 and the disbursements $2,780.73.

This balance is sufficient to meet the current expenses of the library until the next appropriation is available, and also bills for new books now ordered and not yet received.

SAMPSON DID NOT FURNISH FACTS; ADMITS READING MACLAY'S PROOFS

The Admiral Says Schley's Interviews After Battle of Santiago Were Filled with Misstatements.

Boston, Mass., July 23.—Rear Admiral Sampson today stated that he had read the proofs of Maclay's "History of the Navy" in which Rear Admiral Schley is attacked, and which was recently stricken off the text book list at Annapolis by the order of Secretary Long. He declared that Maclay's descriptions of his campaigns were excellent, and held him self responsible in part for the statements made in that history, as they may have come from his official reports.

Following these statements Rear Admiral Sampson declared Schley's first reports regarding the battle of Santiago were "moderately correct," but that later interviews were entirely incorrect, and that, if Schley was correctly quoted, he misstated facts. "Just what I did with the proofs

FOSBURGH TRAGEDY RELATED.

Brother of Accused Testifies as Witness for State.

Pittsfield, Mass., July 23.—For the first time since the Fosburgh trial began, there was testimony today the drift of which those who are not in the secrets of the case for the state could understand. James Fosburgh, the younger brother of the defendant, and who was graduated at Yale college at the last commencement, took the stand. He was the witness for the state—was called by the prosecution to testify against his own brother, who is charged with slaying his own sister. He told of his coming upon the dead body of his sister lying with her feet across the threshold and her body stretched faceward into her bedroom; of his kneeling by her side; of his lifting her head and putting a pillow under it, under the impression that she only had fainted; of his father and mother coming, bleeding and disheveled, and sinking down by the dead girl in their turn; of his brother coming staggering into the room an instant after and falling with a crash to the floor, unconscious, a few inches from his dead sister; of his mad rush into the night, barefooted and but partly dressed, after a doctor, and on his return of his brother's rising slowly from the floor by the body of the dead girl and saying to him: "She is gone."

SEES PUNISHMENT IN THE DROUGHT

Galesburg, Ill., Minister Regards Dry, Hot Weather as a Visitation for Wickedness.

Galesburg, Ill., July 23.—In the ruinous drought now spreading over the crop districts Rev. O. C. Bedford, pastor of the Knox street Congregational church of this city, sees the hand of the Almighty. In his sermon last night he told his hearers it was the punishment of God for national wickedness and the turning away from prayer.

"If this drought will bring people to their knees in prayer and will cause the salvation of souls," he prayed, "then, O Lord, let us have the drought."

Rev. Mr. Bedford maintained the people of the United States are more wicked in some respects than the people of any other country. Family worship is being dropped, he said, and there is no power in the history of the church. God, he added, is therefore taking away the corn and is thus leading the people to prayer.

WIFE IS LOOKING FOR HER HUSBAND

A woman and a little boy have been in the city since Saturday looking for a recreant husband and father. The woman followed her husband to this city where he had come to work but he had vanished. He was a cigar maker and she found that he had gone from Janesville to Milton. She went to Milton but failed to find her husband. Returning to Janesville she appealed to Chief of Police Hogan for help and he took her and her son to Adam Holt's hotel where they have been stopping.

SIXTEEN KILLED IN AN EXPLOSION

Stockholm, Sweden, July 23.—Sixteen persons were killed by an explosion of petroleum in the schooner Louise Adelaide, from Philadelphia, in the harbor here today. The dead: Capt. Ora, ten members of the crew, four Swedish custom officials and the Brazilian consul.

SOONERS WILL BE ORDERED TO SKIP

Washington, D. C., July 23.—The war and interior departments begin to concern themselves about those Oklahoma home seekers who will not obey claims. After the lucky ones get their land the others, numbering two hundred thousand, will be ordered out. Any refusal will be dealt with by the war department.

STEEL TRUST DROPS THE FIGHT; WILL NOT IMPORT NON-UNION MEN

They Give Up the Struggle To Run the McKeesport Mill—First Strike Bulletin Issued from the General Union Labor Offices.

Pittsburg, July 23.—The great steel strike took on a serious aspect this morning. Grim preparations are being made by the strikers at all of the big mills involved and everything indicates a crisis in the great struggle approaching. A look-out committee is on duty at all of the big mills from Wellsville to McKeesport. At the Amalgamated headquarters the feeling is apparent that the leaders expect some coup by the trust.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 23.—Close watch was kept in the headquarters of the Amalgamated Association all day for news from Wellsville and McKeesport. It is very evident that the officials look upon these two points as the central theater of the present struggle. During the day there were reports of an attempt to bring nonunion men into Wellsville to help out the steel plant there, but in each case these rumors were found to be baseless. Assuring reports were received from McKeesport. The Steel Company had apparently abandoned the attempt to operate the Wood plant there. President Shaffer said that he was perfectly satisfied to let the company keep on trying to work its mill, for he knew that there were no men in sight that could take hold of the costly machinery and run it without breaking or wrecking it. Conflicting reports from Duncansville, where there has been a quiet struggle going on between the American Steel Hoop Company and the Amalgamated for the control of the men there, show that the situation is still uncertain. Reports of the closing of the mill are followed by those announcing a change in the determination of the men. In explanation of this state of affairs Vice President John Pierce of the Amalgamated Association, who was present in Duncansville last week to organize the men, said yesterday:

"Duncansville is an old town. The only thing in it that supports the people is this one mill of the American Steel Hoop Company. If it shuts down the props that hold the town up will fall out. The men who work in that mill have heard the declaration of the mill officials. They also want to join our association. They realize that they are between two fires and so soon as they decide one way, some argument is brought to bear on the other side and they change their minds. For this reason it is hard to predict what the final outcome will be."

ORDER JENNINGS TO MAKE PLANS FOR A SINGLE STORY BUILDING

The $40,000 on Hand Not Sufficient to Build a Two-Story Public Library—Bids Were Far in Excess of the Money.

Owing to the fact that the bids on the public library building were all greatly in excess of the appropriation, there is great probability that the excellent plans for the handsome building, submitted by Architect Jennings and accepted by the library board, may be rejected. The architect has been instructed by the library board to prepare plans for a one story building.

The library board held their meeting for opening the bids at the High school building last evening at 7:30 o'clock. Stanley B. Smith, Horace McDroy, Michael Hayes and H. L. Skavlen were present and Architect Jennings also met with the board. When it was found that the bids were so far in excess of the appropriation Mr. Hayes moved that Mr. Jennings be authorized to prepare plans for a one story building. When this is done the two sets of plans are to be considered by the board and a decision made between them. The motion was carried unanimously and Mr. Jennings will complete the new set of plans as rapidly as possible.

The bids were presented on the plans and specifications as they stood and additional figures were also given for substitution of different materials but in no way from the figures given could the contract price be brought within the appropriation. J. P. Cullen of this city, was the lowest bidder. The bids on the plans without substitutions were as follows:

W. T. Wetmore, Chicago, $50,986.
F. M. Garthwait, Chicago, $47,482.
W. J. McAlpin, Dixon, Ill., $45,830.
J. P. Cullen, Janesville, $43,578.

WISCONSIN DAY AT BUFFALO EXPO.

Next Saturday Will Be Marked by the Dedication of the State Building.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 23.—Saturday at the Buffalo exposition will be marked by the dedication of the Wisconsin state building. The speakers will include W. L. Spooner, of Milwaukee, son of United States Senator J. M. Spooner; Governor R. M. La Follette, and Director-General W. L. Buchanan. Governor La Follette and the state officials will leave Madison for Buffalo on a special train July 25. The train will also accommodate all Wisconsin people desiring to avail themselves of the opportunity to visit the exposition on Wisconsin day. The special train will remain in Buffalo until the party returns, probably two or three days.

The exhibits from Wisconsin are well up in comparison with those from the other states. In the first competition in the dairy department it took the highest honors for export butter, and many of the individual exhibits took first place in the competition. The seed display is the finest on the grounds there being over 300 varieties exhibited.

The specimens of lumber from this state are the finest on the grounds. In addition to these features the daily drills by the military organizations and the events in the stadium will attract no little attention. The latter include the athletic contests between the eastern and western representatives of the Y. M. C. A. associations in all parts of the country.

GLOOMY VIEW OF CROP SITUATION

Washington, D. C., July 23.—A gloomy view on the crop situation in the corn belt is taken by the weather bureau in its weekly bulletin. It says: "The conditions are now critical from the lake region, central Ohio valley and Tennessee, westward to middle the Rocky Mountain region, including the greater part of Texas."

Columbus Without Ice
Columbus, O., July 23.—Columbus is practically without ice today, the drivers and helpers having gone on a strike for higher wages.

TRAGIC TALE OF SUFFERING.

Bodies of Six Men Found Near Cape Romanoff.

Nome, July 10 (via Seattle, Wash., July 23).—A tragic story comes from St. Michael's. A party of men, en route to Nome recently found the bodies of six men at a point near Cape Romanoff. It is presumed that they all froze to death during some one of the terrible blizzards that prevailed last winter. The bodies were scattered at intervals—five of them about a quarter of a mile apart. They were outstretched upon the tundra and each was found wrapped in blankets. Each had some camp equipment near him but no food. One of the dead men had been evidently either injured or sick, as he lay on a litter constructed of a pair of oars and a canvas sheet. It would seem that the storm must have overcome the men carrying him. Evidently becoming exhausted they had abandoned him and wandered off, each for himself, to perish where found. Gen. Randall was notified and has ordered out a party of soldiers to bring in the bodies, and every effort will be made to identify them. Gen. Randall thinks that they were a party of prospectors who, in an effort to reach St. Michael's, has run out of provisions and perished from exhaustion and exposure.

AGREE UPON THE INDEMNITY PLAN

Powers Reach an Understanding with China Regarding the Methods of Payment.

Washington, July 23.—Welcome news from Peking was cabled to the State Department by Commissioner Rockhill today. It is that a plan for the payment of the indemnity to the powers has finally been adopted by the diplomats and accepted by China.

Payment is to be made by the means of a bond issue, and final liquidation of the heavy financial obligation to the interested nations is to be secured by means of amortization, or the establishment of a sinking fund, which will steadily grow as time progresses.

China's total international indebtedness thus to be met aggregates 450,000,000 taels. Commissioner Rockhill cables that it is expected that China will raise 23,000,000 taels annually. The bonds to be issued will bear 4 per cent interest. It is figured that he first year the interest and other charges will foot up to 18,000,000 taels, and that 5,000,000 will thus be the first installment in the sinking fund. Every year thereafter the interest will decrease and the sinking fund portion grow larger though the progress in this direction will necessarily be slow. The bonds are to be redeemed in 1940.

MRS. NATION IS SENTENCED

Must Pay $100 and Spend Thirty Days in Jail

Topeka, Kan., July 23.—Mrs. Carrie Nation was today fined $100 and given a thirty days' sentence in jail by Judge Hazen in the district court for disturbing the peace and dignity of the city by a Sunday saloon raid last March. There is no appeal, and Mrs. Nation must serve her time in prison.

Giant Paint Combine

New York, July 23.—A paint combine with a capital of one hundred million dollars is in course of formation here. Chicago men are promoting it.

FOR METAL TRADES COUNCIL.

Meeting in St. Louis to Form National Organization.

St. Louis, Mo., July 23.—The first meeting of the delegates of the different metal trades unions assembled in St. Louis for the purpose of forming a national metal trades council will be held at the offices of the local metal trades council. The new national body is designed as an organization to embrace all local metal trades councils, which are themselves the governing bodies of the various metal workers' unions in the towns where they are situated. The movement was launched at the convention of the American Federation of Labor at Louisville, Ky., Dec. 6, 1900. More than 100 leaders of the metal workers will sit in the convention, which will extend its sessions over the greater part of the week.

BOVINE TUBERCULOSIS CANNOT BE TRANSMITTED TO HUMAN SYSTEM

Prof. Koch, of Berlin, Discoverer of the Phthisis Bacillus, Makes a Startling Announcement.

London, July 23.—Professor Koch, of Berlin, the discoverer of the phthisis bacillus, startled the medical and scientific world today by the announcement that bovine tuberculosis cannot be transmitted to the human system.

The famous bacteriologist, in the course of an interview, authorized the statement that he has demonstrated that he meat and milk of cattle infected with tuberculosis may be consumed with absolute impunity.

"It would be discourteous to the international congress to which I propose to announce my discovery to elaborate my theory in detail at this hour," continued Mr. Koch. "You may say substantially that I have reached the conclusion that mankind's fear of contact with tuberculosis-infected flesh and fluid is unnecessary and unfounded."

GOOD LUCK TO ESCAPE ALIVE

Town of Center Farmer's Family in a Furious Runaway.

SPILT INTO DITCH

Albert Schultz, Wife and Three Children Badly Injured Today.

WIFE TERRIBLY HURT

Albert Schultz and his family, of the town of Center, were the victims of a bad runaway this morning. It was only by the greatest good luck that he, his wife and children, three boys and a girl, all escaped alive, but badly bruised. Schultz and his family came to the city to see the Buffalo Bill performance, and were driving a horse hitched to a democrat wagon.

When near the corner grocery on Washington street the horse became frightened at the street cars and ran away. Schultz could not hold him and he ran down Washington street at a high rate of speed. At the corner of Mineal Point Ave. and Washington streets, he turned toward the east and ran down Jackson street. Schultz made every effort to stop the animal but could do nothing with him. After crossing the railroad tracks the horse continued on to the corner of Jackson and Wall streets. Here he turned the corner to the east towards Franklin street.

The horse was running too fast to make the turn and the entire outfit went into the ditch on the east side of the street. The occupants of the wagon were thrown out with great force, some of them being caught under the overturned vehicle. Before the horse could get a fresh start he was caught by some bystanders and stopped.

Schultz and his wife and children were pulled out of the wreck and taken to Dr. J. F. Pember's office, where their injuries were attended to by Drs. Pember and Fifield. Not a member of the party escaped without injury. Mrs. Schultz was the most seriously injured, her shoulder being dislocated and her head cut and bruised in a number of places. Schultz received a bad cut on his shoulder and had his face bruised and skinned.

The three boys all received injuries about the body and had their faces skinned along the right side. The little girl received a bad cut on the forehead and a number of bruises.

That they were not more seriously hurt is a wonder as the horse was going at full speed when he turned the corner and the rig turned bottom side up. All that was broken about the rig was the dashboard. The horse was not injured and seemed to be ready for another chance.

ELKS ASSEMBLE AT MILWAUKEE

Milwaukee, Wis., July 23.—The Elks convention opened this morning. The attendance is large. Most of the important work of the day was the selection of a Grand Exalted Ruler. Pickett of Iowa and Nethaway of Minnesota are leading in the race.

CHICAGO MARKET STILL TROUBLED

Chicago, Ill., July 23.—Rain reports in the corn belt caused a big drop in September wheat, corn and oats this morning. Wheat fell 1 1/2; corn 1/2; oats 3/4. The market, however, went up again and the losses were almost entirely recovered.

KRUGER MOURNS LOSS OF HIS WIFE

Amsterdam, July 23.—Kruger passed a good night but appears to all broken up by the loss of his wife. Members of his party think that another blow would finish him. They say he would not survive the surrender of Botha and the Boer army.

TURNED DOWN THE MILWAUKEE ROAD COUNCIL REFUSES A CROSSING ON PROSPECT AVENUE.

Objections Because the Proposed Tracks Were Meant to Make a Part of the Railway Yards—Contract to Build City Hall—Meeting of the City Fathers Last Evening.

A large amount of important business was transacted by the common council last evening in a short time. A bid for the construction of a new city hall was accepted; the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway were turned down cold; an ordinance in regard to laying of open or switch tracks in the streets of a city was given its first second and third readings and rushed through the council under suspension of the rules and an ordinance allowing the Janesville Street Railway company to extend its tracks to the city limits in four different directions given its first and second readings.

A communication from the assessors asking that the time for completing their work be extended until July 29 was granted.

Roy Podwell was granted a license to conduct a saloon at No. 9, Academy street. The annual report of the public library board was received and referred to the committee on schools who asked for more time to examine the same which was granted.

The report of the street assessment committee of the amount of work done on Dodge and Pleasant streets and the amount due from each piece of property benefited by the improvement was adopted. The total cost of the work on Pleasant street was $2,432.89 and on Dodge $2,052.01. The plans of the sewer on Washington street from Magnolia avenue to the Mole culvert as prepared by City Engineer Kerch were adopted and the city clerk instructed to advertise for bids for doing the work.

The usual batch of bills against the city was presented by the finance committee and presented and the clerk instructed to draw orders on the treasurer for the same.

A resolution calling for the payment of the work done on Pleasant and Dodge streets was adopted.

Milwaukee Road Turned Down. The highway committee reported that the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad company had applied to the council for permission to lay five tracks across Prospect avenue to their proposed freight depot on a grade to be established by their engineer which was considerably lower than the grade of the street. Inasmuch as the proposed tracks would make the streets a part of their yard they recommended that the petition be refused. The report of the committee was adopted by the unanimous vote of the council.

The report of the highway committee on the amount due for work on Court street for the completion of the John Martin contract was adopted.

The school committee reported favorably on the purchase of lot 2, Congress addition at $300 for school purposes. The report of the committee was adopted.

The city hall committee made the following report which was accepted by the council.

Rawson & Son Get Contract

The city hall committee reported on the bids received to build the city hall. The bid of Rawson & Son, of Iowa City, Ia., for $44,980.00 was accepted, but it was $3,000 more than the appropriation. In making the recommendation the committee said: "We would recommend that the amount be increased and that the proposal of Jas. Rawson & Son be accepted, they being the lowest bidders for the construction of said building under the second proposal, and that the mayor be authorized and directed to execute a contract on the part of the city in accordance with this report."

An Issue of Bonds. The ordinance for the issuing of bonds for the purchase of a library and city hall sites and for the building of the city hall was given its last reading and passed.

An ordinance making it unlawful for saloons to leave barrels or kegs or any other obstruction on the sidewalk in front of their place of business was introduced.

An ordinance making it unlawful for any steam railway company to lay any spur or switch tracks in any of the streets of the city under a penalty of $100 per day unless permission had first been obtained from the council was given its first and second reading and under a suspension of the rules was given its third reading and passed.

An order for the payment of $11,619.30 of the outstanding city notes was passed and one for the payment of $3,471.25 on the library site was passed.

An ordinance regulating the charges to be made by the sealer of weights and measures and calling for a semi-annual inspection of all weights and measures in use in the city was given its first and second reading and passed.

J. M. Bostwick and E. H. Dudley were given permission to use certain streets of the city to move the houses purchased by them from the city. They must first make the necessary arrangements with the telephone, electric light and street railway companies and be able to show the city marshal a permit from them before they begin work.

The city engineer was instructed to establish a new curb line on McKee boulevard and the assistant street commissioner to remove the sidewalk on Eastern avenue leading to the Athletic park on account of its dangerous condition.

To Extend Street Railway. An ordinance was introduced granting rights and privileges to the Janesville street railway company to extend their Milton avenue line to the city limits. Their Main street line east on Eastern avenue to the limits. A spur from Washington street out Magnolia avenue to the limits and from East Milwaukee street along Bluff street and the Fulton road to the limits. The ordinance was given its first and second reading and laid over until the next meeting of the council.

The street commissioner was instructed to raise the cross walk at the intersection of Milwaukee and South River streets.

The action of the court in sustaining the city in the Prospect avenue suit was ratified by the council.

Mayor Richardson announced that the terms of Mrs. A. P. Lovejoy, C. L. Fifield and H. L. Skavlem as members of the library board had expired and that he would re-appoint them. His appointments were confirmed.

AMERICAN WHIST LEAGUE CONGRESS

Eleventh Annual Meeting Will Take Place in Milwaukee from July 29 to August 3.

The eleventh congress of the American Whist League will take place at Milwaukee on July 29 to Aug. 3. Milwaukee was the scene of the first American Whist congress, and the whist players of the country meet there this year to celebrate the league's tenth anniversary.

In addition to the Hamilton championship trophy for teams of four, the Minneapolis trophy for club pairs and the Brooklyn trophy for auxiliary association teams of twelve, which will be played for under rules similar to those of the last three congresses, two new trophies, the Milwaukee trophy for mixed teams of four and the associate members' trophy for associate members and their partners, will be put in play for the first time.

The program further differs from that of any previous congress in that there will be only one progressive four match during the week, all the other open games being pair matches. Everything has been arranged with a view to making the programs as attractive as possible to the average whist player, and the largest and most enthusiastic congress of them all is confidently looked for.

Six Head of Cattle Killed.

E. D. Roberts, state veterinarian, has just returned from Lima, where he was called to examine a herd of cattle on the farm of Alexander Van Horne, one and a half miles from Lima, that were affected with tuberculosis. He made a physical examination of the cattle and ordered six head killed at once. Post mortem examination of the dead animals showed them to be in an advanced stage of the disease. The balance of the herd will be tested as soon as the extreme hot weather is over. The test gives much better results in cooler weather. The herd showed more traces of the dreaded disease than any examined by the doctor this season.

Janesville the Center.

Janesville is likely to be the center of a system of inter-urban lines that are now asking for franchises in different cities and towns along their proposed line. One, the Janesville-Rockford, Ill., line, will reach southward, as if eventually to secure direct connections with the western metropolis. Another line projected westward from Kenosha to Lake Geneva, will touch the Philadelphia's projected route. A third line, from Kilbourn to Baraboo and Madison, which will be extended to this city, it is believed, will put the southern portion of the state in direct connection with the Wisconsin river valley, where a line is soon to be built from Merrill to Grand Rapids, by way of Wausau and Stevens Point.

To Wet Down Dry Grass.

William Ward, the east side drayman, suggests that it might be a good idea during the extreme dry weather if the fire department would send out a couple of men and a few lengths of hose around the outskirts of the city, within reach of the fire hydrants, and wet down the dry grass and buildings. In many places around the edges of the town there are vacant lots grown up with grass which is now so dry that a match or any spark is apt to start a bad fire. By wetting them down once in a while during the dry spell a great deal of money might be saved the city and the property owners.

MUST FIGHT FOR PEACE OR HARMONY

Strained Political Situation Between Republican Factions in State of Wisconsin.

W. F. Hooker, in the Chicago Inter Ocean or last Sunday, has a well written letter on the political situation in the republican party in Wisconsin. Among other things, he says:

"If there is peace or harmony in the ranks of Wisconsin republicans it will have to be forced—fought for—and unless someone is making poor calculations the fight will take place, beginning early in the fall, after the various leaders throughout the state have been consulted, and a canvass made of certain districts, which include a large portion of Wisconsin, where there is great dissatisfaction with La Follette.

"After his first thirty days in office no stalwart was recognized by Robert M. La Follette. It has been war from the day he became suspicious of his friends who recommended compromise, and such it will be to the end, for he will not trust the stalwarts, and the stalwarts will not trust him. Neither will La Follette trust the half-breeds who are not subservient to his will in every particular, as indicated in his treatment of Assemblyman Steigler, who also recommended a compromise on the Stevens bill. Under the influence of such a man as Murphy, the former political editor of the Sentinel, no Stalwart can expect anything but a fight and complete departures from everything time-honored in the party that had its birth at Ripon.

"The governor is quoted by one of his close friends as saying, some time ago, when he was advised to meet certain stalwarts with a view to becoming reconciled, that he wished he could do so, but that it was not in his nature. The stalwarts referred to had fought him bitterly, and while they made his nomination possible and worked for his election, and were willing to accept him and his promises, he could not think of such a thing as advice from such a source.

"It was a bitter contest while it lasted and many hard words were spoken up to the time it was decided to allow La Follette to occupy the field alone, but the stalwarts swarmed the Hotel Pfister in their eagerness to congratulate the new governor—for he was as good as elected when nominated—but though he was ready to receive nearly all who were willing to let the past be forgotten that was the last of it, and when he entered the executive office the curtains came down, the window glass was retained, doors locked except to those who knew the secret tap, and the lights were turned low.

"Murphy, occupying a place here before one principally of a clerical character, assumed the air of a keeper, moved his desk into a commanding position, and passed upon the applications for audience with his chief with such rigor as to exclude men who, while faithful supporters of the governor, were thought to be tainted with the notion of harmony. Murphy was afraid of the old-fashioned idea among republicans that pre-convention quarrels should be forgotten, while hundreds of La Follette admirers and staunch supporters felt that it would be necessary to let bygones be bygones.

"They wanted to tell the governor that it would not do to continue the fight; that he could not expect to handle a legislature, the upper house of which was stalwart, unless he made some concessions and showed a disposition to recognize a difference of opinion on certain matters of public or party interests. It is barely possible that in putting the door of the executive office in the hands of the former editor the governor was cheated out of some good advice that he would have accepted, but there are few among the stalwarts who believe that Murphy disobeyed the commands of his superior."

Going to the "Pan."

A number of early visitors to the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo have returned. Everything is now complete and the show is reported to be finer (if not so large) than the World's Fair. A great many have gone via Milwaukee and the new route, the Pere Marquette lake and rail to Detroit. A card of inquiry addressed to H. W. Jameson, T. P. A., Milwaukee, will bring you any information you wish concerning rates, time, etc.

Pere Marquette Route.

Thousands of Wisconsin people are arranging to visit the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo this summer. The Pere Marquette route, via Milwaukee and Detroit, will be the favorite with many who know of its comfort and attractive features. It is a relief to the traveler to change from the dusty cars to a comfortable steamer for a few hours. Round trip tickets to Buffalo via Milwaukee at excursion rates, with stop-over privileges. Ask your agent or write N. W. Jameson, T. P. A., 91 Wisconsin street, Milwaukee, Wis., for particulars.

THE GAZETTE AGENCY.
W. W. CLARK, Manager.
Milwaukee, Wis., July 21, 1901.

The ball game on Thursday afternoon between Milton Junction and Stoughton was a farce. The score was 18 to 2 in favor of the Junction team, who put up a good game, but did not have opposition enough to encourage them to play fast ball and the two runs that the visitors got were made on errors. Stoughton had but one good player in their outfit, the catcher, and he was obliged to quit on account of an injured finger. The visiting pitcher was dead easy for the Junction boys and wild as a hawk.

Ernest Bond is enjoying an outing at Lake Ripley.

Mrs. J. B. Morton returned from her visit at St. Paul Thursday.

Miss Parker, of Toledo, Iowa, is the guest of Miss Pugsley.

F. C. Dunn, of Dunn, Boss & Co., made a business trip to Grand Rapids, Mich., last week.

P. B. Harley has been taking a rest as the result of too much hot weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Orcutt of Perry, O., have been visiting O. E. Orcutt and wife and other Milton friends.

Miss Ida Hanna, of Lake Geneva, accompanied Rev. North and daughter to Monona.

W. H. Ingham has accepted a position with the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York.

Rev. T. W. North and Miss Beulah North are at Monona assembly. Presiding Elder Stevens of Janesville, will preach at the M. E. church Sunday evening.

W. B. Anderson and wife of Lake Mills, have been visiting their Milton relatives for several days.

Mrs. E. M. Dunn and Mrs. H. L. Belknap left Friday for Glenwood Springs, Lake Geneva, where they will spend the balance of the summer.

Milton Good Templars have bought a lot 130x40 feet of Mrs. Auria S. Wells, east of her house, and intend to build a hall and lodge room thereon.

Mrs. Bertha Fross-Ritchie is enjoying a two weeks' vacation with her parents.

Mrs. Elsie Giesby, of New Orleans, is here to spend a few months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fetherston.

Mrs. C. B. Godfrey is at the Monona assembly.

Dr. Palmberg spoke at the Seventh-Dap Baptist church Saturday morning.

James G. Bond, in the employ of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad with headquarters at Minton, W. Va., is here to enjoy a vacation with his family in the balmy air of this northern region, with the thermometer 1 era region with the thermometer 103 in the shade.

Dr. Palmberg left for the east Monday and will remain until after conference.

Sunday broke all hot weather records here—108 in the shade with a 6 o'clock p. m. thermometers marked 95.

Miss Ana Nelson left this village Sunday for the Society Islands in the Pacific ocean, where she will teach. She accompanies Rev. and Mrs. Caddy, who have resided there eight years. Miss Nelson's Milton friends hope to see her here again. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vollmer went out to Eagle Sunday.

That is where some people feel weak all the time.

They are likely to be despondent and it is not unusual to find them borrowing trouble as if they hadn't enough already.

The fact is their kidneys are weak, either naturally or because of sickness, exposure, worry or other influences.

HUMAN SYSTEM CAN TONE ITSELF TO STAND 600 DEGREES OF HEAT

Nowhere on the Earth's Surface Does Solar Heat
Begin to Approach Man's Capacity.

The people of Janesville recovered from the record-breaking heat wave of last Wednesday, may be shocked to know that while on that occasion, the official mercury reached 102 degrees in the shade of the Auditorium tower, it is quite possible for the human system to tone itself up to withstand 600 degrees of heat. Nowhere on the earth's surface does solar heat begin to approach man's capacity for resistance. And in spite of the laws of physics, the blacker the man the more heat he can stand. One hundred and forty degrees Fahrenheit is a terrific heat to be recorded in the sun under natural conditions in any latitude in Death Valley in Southern California such a heat has been measured and in it the ordinary man may adjust himself with safety. As to the capacity of endurance in the educated freak, Chabert, the "Fire King" of Great Britain, used to enter an oven which ranged from 400 degrees to 600 degrees Fahrenheit, says the Chicago Tribune.

Stockers in the hold of big vessels shovel coal in stifling atmosphere, heated from 150 to 180 degrees. They work at it, day after day, and often year after year, without visible harm.

In the bakeries of La Rochefoucauld in France, it is said that women enter the ovens when they are 301 degrees. Sir F. Chantery of London tells of workmen who enter furnaces where plaster molds are dried, moving around inside while the floors are still red hot and when a thermometer held in the hand will register 350 degrees. These men appear to suffer less from that terrific heat than a Chicago man does when it is 92 degrees in the shade.

In a big office building in Dearborn street is a battery of tremendous boilers, with the floor of the boiler room covered with a steel plates riveted together. Six feet from the furnace mouths of the boiler bank an egg laid on the floor will cook hard in ten minutes. This is the year-long temperature of this furnace room, and yet firemen and engineers work in it year after year. Glass-blowers and rolling mill men are accustomed to such degrees of heat as are impossible of making by the rays of the sun, yet they are hardly more subject to sunstroke or heat stroke than any ordinary persons in out-of-door work temperature at 85 degrees.

Acclimation to solar heat which has approached the 90s seems to be more difficult for the white race than for any other, in spite of the fact that the mere lack of pigment in the skin tends to cause the reflection of solar heat from the body.

In Chinese provinces there natives with close-cropped heads of hair who go all day in burning sun with no protection of any kind for their exposed skulls. The Adamanses, also with no covering for the head and with a black scalp inviting the penetration of the sun's rays, work under the glaring sun only 12 degrees north of the equator. On the gold coast mothers strap their children to their backs and leave the little ones bare-headed under the burning sky with no ill results. In Arizona, southern Colorado, and parts of New Mexico ranchmen are accustomed to a summer heat of 119 to 128 degrees, yet sunstrokes there are unknown. European tea planters in Assam are exposed to the tropical sun in the hottest hours of the day, and yet, as a class they become perfectly acclimated.

In India the Caucasian suffers as much, perhaps, as he does in any other tropical climate. In the low lands of the peninsula the long seasons of heat undermine the European constitution. The ceaseless flapping of the punka, dampened to induce coolness, does not mitigate the evils that come from torpid livers. With an unchanging, brassy sky, day after day, the heat of tropical India is probably the worst in the world, unless it be somewhere along the Nile.

Sunstroke is one of the oldest and most dreaded of recognized diseases. The ancients call it Sirlasias Egyptian, for the double reason that it was most frequent when Sirius the dog star, rose and set with the sun, and because the Nile region in Egypt was most noted for its manifestations. The disease is referred to in the Bible in the case of the son of the Shunammite woman. In II. Kings, fourth chapter, it is said: "And when the child was grown it fell on a day that he went out to his father to the reapers."

"And he said unto his father, My head, my head. And he said to a lad, carry him to his mother."

"And when he had taken him and brought him to his mother he sat on her knees till noon and then died."

Strangely enough since this was written medical science has learned scarcely more of the disease than was known to the Shunammite woman as she sat holding her dying child.

"Nobody knows what takes place in the human system under stress of sunstroke," said a well known Chicago physician. An autopsy reveals virtually nothing. Sambon of London has made wide investigation of the subject and if he has made some radical deductions no one else is in a position to dispute them."

It was in 1898 that Sambon announced with some degree of finality the infectiousness of sunstroke. In the beginning he drew a sharp distinction between heat collapse and sunstroke. The heat collapse, he called syncope, which he insists, is more a symptom than a disease. He identified it with the well known "stockers' collapse," which occurs in the furnace rooms of big steam plants. This, he finds, is more due to alcoholic enlargement of the heart than to any "stroke" of heat.

The true sunstroke Dr. Sambon calls by its old name, sirlasias. There are two forms in its onset. In one the person drops as if shot, dying almost instantly. In the other the victim feels pains in the head, followed by dizziness and blurs of color in his sight. A sense of oppression comes over him, with nausea and possible vomiting. This is followed in a few minutes by unconsciousness, which gradually deepens into coma. In the course of twelve to thirty-six hours the patient is dead.

When the victim of the milder stroke is discovered his face is abnormally red. To the touch his skin may be cool, possibly at 95 or 96 degrees. His pulse is rapid and light. He may have convulsions as he lies.

When the coma has deepened his pulse grows stronger, and his temperature may rise to 110 or even as high as 118 degrees. His muscles are relaxed and his breathing stentorous, as if under the influence of an anesthetic. His lungs are violently congested. If death follows, the body becomes rigid almost in a moment. A post mortem examination shows the blood in a fluid state, with perhaps the only indication of the cause of death lying in the fact that the right ventricle of the heart is unusually dilated while the left ventricle is correspondingly contracted.

If recovery is to follow an attack, it comes with a gradual diminution of the fever and a returning of consciousness. In some cases a person recovers completely from such a stroke, but in the majority of cases its after effects may last the rest of the person's life. Temporary loss of memory and an inability to concentrate thought are frequent results of sunstroke. Occasional convulsions may manifest themselves and chronic meningitis, with cerebral lesions, may follow. In all such cases the victim may always expect to be oversensitive to heat.

ORFORDVILLE.

Orfordville, July 23—E. E. Haugen was in Janesville on business Monday.

On Saturday evening, July 27, an ice cream social will be held at the residence of Andrew Gaarder, for the benefit of the Lutheran parsonage. All are cordially invited to be present.

Miss Carrie Haugen, who has been visiting friends here the past week, left Monday for Madison.

Misses Mabel Taylor and Emma Haugen attended the Green County Soldiers' reunion at Juda Saturday.

Ed. Osgard of Cambridge, Wis., has been visiting with M. E. Osgard the past few days, returning Monday.

The social given by the Footville Y. P. C. E. at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson on Friday was a social and financial success.

Hon. and Mrs. H. C. Taylor and daughter, Elsie, are attending the Monona assembly at Madison.

Herman Sater leaves Tuesday for Thompson, N. D., where he has secured a position.

Messrs. Ben Osgard, Will Liston, Anton Rockasek and Bendick Roen will leave the latter part of this week for a few days' outing along the Mississippi river near Prairie du Chien.

On Saturday, July 20, the Orfordville Cornet band furnished music for the Green county Soldiers' reunion at Juda, Wis. They report a very large attendance and an excellent time.

F. T. Norris has been spending the past week in Chicago on business connected with his undertaking.

Quite a number from here contemplate attending the excursion to the Dells next Sunday.

July 22nd to Aug 4th. Good to return until Aug 6th. Acc't Chautauqua assembly. $1.05 for the round trip.

Rock-a-Bye Baby

These are sweet words, but how much pain and suffering they used to mean. It's different now. Since Mother's Friend has become known expectant mothers have been spared much of the anguish of childbirth. Mother's Friend is a liniment to be applied externally. It is rubbed thoroughly into the muscles of the abdomen. It gives elasticity and strength, and when the final great strain comes they respond quickly and easily without pain. Mother's Friend is never taken internally. Internal remedies at this time do more harm than good. If a woman is supplied with this splendid liniment she need never fear rising or swelling breasts, morning sickness, or any of the discomforts which usually accompany pregnancy.

The proprietor of a large hotel in Tampa, Fla., writes: "My wife had an awful time with her first child. During her second pregnancy, Mother's Friend was used and the baby was born easily before the doctor arrived. It's certainly great."

In speaking of indigestion, Dr. Lewis says: "It is deplorable that so many hundreds of thousands of Americans suffer from indigestion. It means that the blood of the nation is becoming impure; for undigested food poisons the blood. Unless a method is devised for overcoming this malady, our race must deteriorate."

Many persons use soda tablets to neutralize fermenting food; this only makes a chemical receptacle out of the stomach, and injures its sensitive structures. Others feed on pepsin, which is better, but not sufficient, for it digests only albuminous foods.

The preparation best fitted to relieve and absolutely cure indigestion is KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. It contains every known digestant and digests every kind of food. Its use is a common sense method of treating all stomach troubles, and the results are always certain.

TELEGRAPHIC SERVICE.
The Gazette receives the full daily telegraphic report of the Scripps-McIntire

No other convention calls together so vast a multitude of delegates as the Christian Endeavor, which held its twentieth annual convention at Cincinnati. This meeting of over 30,000 young Christians from every civilized country and from every denomination the world over was unique in that it abounded with almost unlimited enthusiasm for the work laid out by the great founder, the Rev. F. E. Clark. No leader was ever followed more conscientiously or trusted more implicitly, and it may be ventured that no leader has deserved more praise for his efforts. It is noteworthy that neither the Sunday school, the Y. M. C. A. or the C. E. society had any kind of ecclesiastical origin, they are all great social-religious movements for and by the young people, and were organized because of the need to meet the necessities of a condition. The wonderful work of the Christian Endeavor society is the preparation of its members to take up the work of the church when the time comes, and no better school of preparation could be organized. Ruled as a unit by the consecrated mind of one man who is so broad minded as to meet every question and contingency with the wisdom and authority, but without the dissension of an ecclesiastical council or synod. Mr. Clark has won for himself the admiration and love of over 4,000,000 young people, representing 60,000 societies.

During the war with Spain the C. E. society was represented not only in the soldiers' camp, but on the battleship, several of which had a regular society on board which held regular meetings. The Olympia had a band of these workers who published a paper called the Ocean Breeze. The Oregon on its immortal run around the Horn held Christian Endeavor meetings every day. And one of the captured ships at Manila was manned entirely by members from Dewey's squadron, who named their boat the "Christian Endeavor."

Every foreign squadron boasts a floating society and several hospitals and sailors' homes are supported by Christian Endeavor sailors. It is a remarkable fact that over against the subdivision of churches and creeds which are being multiplied ad infinitum, appears this non-sectarian, universally honored and respected union of Christians who are working as harmoniously as a family, without giving a thought to differences, but uniting their efforts for one purpose, however it may be gained, "The World for Christ."

The immense and many sided practicability of this society seems to give the lie to the feeling that we in America are becoming too materialistic in our religious creeds and beliefs.

The emphasis placed on a conscientious, religious life, on definite religious devotion, and on the sound factors in religious life are ideas that are not likely to become antiquated or out of date. In this lies the promise of permanence which some have dared to question.

At last it looks as though Sen. Clark of Montana, was to be punished for at least one of the crimes that have besmirched his representation and that of his state, Montana. The government endeavors to protect the individual who seeks to secure a small portion of land at a small cost for his own individual use. Some rich mine owners have recently hired men to take government land under oath that it was for their personal use, and afterward sell it to these corporations. There is nothing new in this procedure. It has long been practiced in Idaho and California, by men who afterward used their wealth to break into the United States senate. The extent of the frauds are not yet known, but over one hundred indictments have been found involving millions of dollars. Although proof will be extremely difficult, it appears that Senator Clark is one of the prime movers. The facts were brought to light when Clark attempted to break into the senate over a year ago, which attempt was met with the cold shoulder by senators from both parties. It is dangerous to allow such men as Clark and Addicks to find an easy entrance to a position of respect and power in the highest legislative body in the land, and it is to be hoped that if the frauds are proved they will debar such men from any active connection with our government.

The attitude of the delegates to the Ohio democratic convention and that assumed by democratic newspapers shows that a great change in sentiment has taken place. No better idea of the position of the defeated party can be had than by a perusal of extracted sentences from editorial comment by the leading democratic papers.

"Ohio democrats have cleaned away its deadwood."—N. Y. Journal.

"We endorse the platform and proceedings of the convention heartily."—Indianapolis Sentinel.

"Bryan's dictation no longer exercises any power of command. There is the conduct of reasonable men who do not mean to go to the devil with their eyes open."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"The most respectable and satisfactory political gathering."—Hartford Times.

"Mr. Bryan is not the nominee of the democratic party for president."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

"It is time for democrats to return from following after strange gods."—New Orleans Picayune.

"Ohio sweeps the populist and socialist rubbish out of the way."—Chicago Chronicle.

The strike of steel workers seems to be more general than was anticipated. To prevent sympathetic strikes some firms have announced a voluntary increase of 10 per cent. in wages. One of the first effects of the strike has been the increase in the price of iron and steel material, which will affect every contractor in the building trade. The demand is an unusual one, in that no increase in wages is asked, simply recognition of the principle of the union. No corporation can compel its men to join a union, neither ought a union demand that corporations employ only union men.

The N. E. A. at Detroit seem to be in doubt about the wisdom of establishing a national university, supported by the government. Such men as Pres. Butler and Pres. Harper are opposed to the scheme, while Pres. Barker claims these men have personal reasons for their stand, in that such an institution would detract from the student body of Chicago and other universities.

While a majority of the committee of fifteen are opposed to a national university, the association voted to accept the report, but did not adopt it as an expression of their judgment, but that the general opinion of the body of educators was and always had been favorable to such an institution.

The Mobile Register says in regard to the recent constitutional conventions in the south that "They need a million Chinamen to wake the negro into activity." That would be a fine state of things, based on the philosophy that if one negro is bad, two are better. If the Chinaman was to work cheaper than the negro and then in his enforced idleness, teach him the soothing effects of opium, how much would the negro be "waked into activity?"

Ice Handlers to Strike. Columbus, O., July 23.—To add to the woes of sweltering Columbus people the Teamsters and Ice Handlers' Union held a meeting and announced the intention of going on strike today on account of failure of employers to pay the scale for overtime work. And this prospect develops with the temperature at 104.

Toledo Rolling Mill to Re-open. Toledo, O., July 23.—The Toledo rolling mill of the Republic Iron and Steel company will resume after seven years' inactivity, about Aug. 1. Four hundred men will be employed with a monthly pay roll of $30,000.

LYNCHED IN PUBLIC PARK.

West Virginia Negro Pays Penalty for Shooting Chief of Police.

Elkins, W. Va., July 23.—William Brooks, colored, was lynched in City Park here in the afternoon by a mad mob of 500 half an hour after he had shot and fatally wounded Robert Lilly, chief of police. Brooks was creating a disturbance in the lower end of town and when Chief Lilly tried to arrest him the negro fled into a house. The officer followed and clinched with him. While they were rolling on the floor the officer's revolver dropped from his pocket and Brooks seized it and shot Lilly through the abdomen. Brooks then jumped from a window and was instantly pursued by the crowd which had been attracted by the fight. He was captured after a chase of half a mile and carried to the park, where his body was soon swinging from a tree.

R. D. Whitford and F. J. Crandall, of Edgerton, called on friends in this city yesterday.

LITHIA SPRINGS PROJECT MOVING

Prominent Business Men of the City Consider the Matter at a Meeting Last Night.

Quite a number of the prominent business men of the city gathered at the Myers hotel last evening to help further the development of the Burr Lithia Springs company. Mr. Tucker and Mr. Wachsmith addressed those present and gave an outline of what the company proposed to do to develop the plant.

The party of doctors from Chicago who recently visited the Springs and looked over the grounds, have since that time given their opinions as to the location of the property and value of the water for medicinal purposes. These letters were read at the meeting and created considerable enthusiasm in regard to the plant. They were signed by O. Beverly Campbell, Sanger Brown, Clifford Mitchell, Franklin H. Martin and D. A. K. Steele.

A business committee composed of the following citizens was chosen to canvass for stock in their respective lines of business: Physicians, Dr. J. F. Pember, Dr. James Mills. Business men, J. M. Bostwick, F. C. Cook, W. T. Vankirk, D. W. Watt. Attorneys, W. A. Jackson, J. J. Cunningham. Liverymen, Colin C. MacLean, Dan Ryan.

Among those who were present at the meeting there were three who each agreed to take 2,000 shares of the stock. These were J. M. Bostwick, W. T. Vankirk and F. C. Cook. The committees will make a tour of the business houses today and will hold their lists open for a day or two.

THE OBITUARY RECORD.

Actress Lillian Green Dead. New York, July 23.—Lillian Green, the actress, who was removed to Roosevelt hospital a few days ago suffering from typhoid fever, is dead, theater-goers remember her best for her recent work in "King Dodo." Miss Green was formerly a roof garden favorite in New York. She left this stage to become the wife of Charles Flamen Adee, millionaire and commodore of the Columbia yacht club. She was granted an absolute divorce on Jan. 10 last, when she returned to the stage.

Col. Albert Jenks. Los Angeles, Cal., July 23.—Col. Albert Jenks, a well-known artist, dropped dead on the street in front of the residence of his friend, Mrs. C. B. Bruhn. Heart disease was the cause of death. The latter and H. Langley, the writer and publisher, were walking with him at the time and were laughing and chatting when, with an unfinished joke upon his lips, Col. Jenks pitched forward and expired.

Shipbuilder Henderson Dead. Glasgow, July 23.—John Henderson, the well known shipbuilder of this city, is dead.

THE FIRE RECORD.

Aberdeen Tannery Burned. Mayville, Ky., July 23.—The large tannery at Aberdeen, O., belonging to Martin & Riedley, burned, together with several small dwellings and other houses, entailing a loss of $50,000. In the storeroom of the tannery was $2,000 of fine leather stock ready to ship today.

Fatal Fire in a Hotel. Ottumwa, Iowa, July 23.—John O'Connor of Mount Pleasant was suffocated by fire in the Laclede hotel here. There were eighteen other guests in the hotel, many of whom had narrow escapes.

Women Raid Kansas Joints. Eldorado, Kas., July 23.—Seven women, headed by Mrs. H. T. Grover, president of the local W. C. T. U., entered a "joint" run by a man named Ensch, in a tent in the center of town, and demolished a tubful of bottled beer. They took samples of the liquor to the sheriff, who later ordered the keeper to quit business. Five hundred people gathered while the raid was in progress. A keeper in another part of town loaded his stock into a wagon and disappeared. The women say they propose to keep up their work whenever a joint opens. At the last city election the town went "wet," and for the first time in several years the joints have been running wide open.

Personal Description Denied. A Montreal reporter described Rudyard Kipling as a "red-haired, squint-eyed little possumy." An English commentator says the description is accurate in every respect with the following reservations: First, Mr. Kipling is not red-haired; second, he does not squint; third, he is not possumy.

Rev. Robbins Not Daunted. Cincinnati, O., July 23.—Rev. G. R. Robbins, pastor of the Lincoln Park Institutional Baptist church, does not believe in letting the hot weather interfere with soul saving. The following announcement of his midsummer revival has astonished his ministerial brethren: "Midsummer revival service. Electric fans—two choirs—inspiring singing. No let up in soul saving because of the weather. This church makes it hard for people to go to hell and easy to go to heaven. There is no need of closing churches in Cincinnati nor holding union meetings in order to get a congregation."

The case of the state of Wisconsin vs. John Murray, one of the men accused of holding up Dick Hogan at Beloit some time ago was called in the municipal court this morning and adjourned, until July 27 at 11:30 o'clock.

WILD WEST SHOW DRAWS BIG CROWD

PEOPLE LINED THE STREETS TO WITNESS PARADE.

Three Excellent Bands, including the Celebrated Cowboy Mounted Band,
Were Included in the Procession—Show This Afternoon Well Attend. ed—Thousands Expected Tonight

The three special trains bearing "Buffalo Bill's" Wild West rolled into town at an early hour this morning from Milwaukee where performances were given yesterday. Men and horses were quickly transferred to the show grounds and everything put in readiness for the performances of today.

The streets began to fill up at an early hour and when Col. W. F. Cody hove in sight, driving at the head of the most remarkable aggregation of men that could be collected from every quarter of the globe the streets were lined with enthusiastic onlookers.

While the representation of the Wild West forms the foundation of the show, this exhibition, like the nation, has expanded and instead of depicting only a part of our country, it is really an international congress of heroes. Never were gladiators in the Roman arena more worthy the applause of the populace than are the men of the "Wild West" deserving the admiration of the people of today.

It is not so much what they accomplish daily as how what each individual has done and what he stands for.

There are men fresh from the bloody fields of South Africa, who carry the very guns they fired at the imperial troops of Queen Victoria and Edward VII. Close by are the lithe and handsome sons of the Arabian desert from whose sand sprang the noblest horses the world has ever seen.

In the same line of march were the taper waisted Cossacks, riding under the banner of Nicholas II, close to the Boers, and none too friendly were British soldiers who have seen service all the way from the Pyramids to the Cape in Africa and the frozen Northwest of Canada.

Beneath broad sombreros rode the swarthy sons of Mexico, and proud looking as Wilhelm himself were the stalwart soldiers carrying the German Eagles.

From the Jersey sands there is a life-saving crew that has often assisted distressed vessels, and from the great west here are the noble red man, who, figuratively speaking, forms the backbone of the exhibition.

And most inspiring of all to Americans were our own boys in blue along with the picturesque cowboys.

Three excellent bands, including the famous cowboy mounted band, and a drum corps, were in line and furnished inspiring martial music.
The parade, while not spectacular, was rich in instruction and historic value. Every individual in line was the genuine article; no one assumes to be this, that or the other thing.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the first of the two performances to be given here was witnessed by a large and delighted audience. The show was better than ever before, though the crowd was pleased to welcome many of the favorites, including that peerless horseman and marksman, Col.
Cody, Johnny Baker whose brilliant trick shooting has made him the idol of the small boy for many years, and Miss Annie Oakley whose remarkable skill with the rifle is unsurpassed.

Then there were the Indians, cowboys, Cossacks, Mexicans, Araus, road agents, and many others of this strange cosmopolitan family, all of whom took their turn in amusing the audience and did their share in keeping the excitement at fever heat.

Another performance will be given this evening and the management assures the public that nothing will be slighted, the entire performance being given. Very many of the features take on an added delight and picturesqueness with the glow of the calcium and electric lights.

Bear-Livermore Wedding
Rev. W. W. Woodside has returned home from Evanston, Ill., where he went to officiate at the wedding of a brother minister who is one of his closest friends, Rev. Lawrence P.
Bear, of London, Wis. The bride was Miss Evelyn Livermore, a graduate of Northwestern university and a young woman of brilliant accomplishments. The wedding was held at the home of her parents in Evanston yesterday afternoon at four o'clock and was a delightful society event.

The groom is quite well-known in this city having visited here as Rev.
Woodside's guest. He will be especially remembered for his work here last winter when he assisted Rev. Woodside in a series of special services. He is one of the most promising young ministers in the Methodist church and is now located as pastor of the church at London, Wis.

Ostrich Feathers From Africa
Charles I. Sloan yesterday received a package from Cape Town, Africa, containing six handsome ostrich feathers packed in a round tin case about two feet and a half long and were sent by William Kissam Sloan, who formerly worked for Mr. Sloan and left here to join the British army in South Africa. The feathers are very fine and are about two and one-half feet in length. There are two white and four gray ones. They have never been dyed and are now in their natural state. Mr. Sloan prizes the feathers highly on account of their donor who was thoughtful enough to send them. He will send the feathers to Chicago to have them died for hat plumes.

Elmer Clark, son of J. M. Clark, of this city, left yesterday for New York where he goes in the interest of Fairbanks, Morse & Co., of Beloit, with whom he holds a very responsible position. He will be absent about a month, his business being to inspect the eastern agents in installing their marine engines.

The employees of F. S. Barnes' warehouse purchased an elegant easy arm chair and presented it to their foreman, Harry Keller, yesterday afternoon, as a token of their regard for the manner in which he has conducted the warehouse during the packing season.

A Pleasant Entertainment

In honor of Mrs. Cora McKenzie-Walker, of Ennis, Tex., who is visiting relatives and friends in this city, Miss Jessie Echlin last evening entertained a company of eighteen young women, personal friends of the guest of honor. The evening was spent very pleasantly on the spacious lawn surrounding the Echlin home at 56 Mineral Point avenue. During the evening the guests were invited in to the dining room and were seated at one long table where delightful and delicious refreshments were served. The occasion was one of pure enjoyment and was one of the most delightful events that have been held this summer.

Regimental Reunion

Forty years ago today the old Fifth Wisconsin regiment broke camp at Camp Randall and marched away to the front to face screaming shot and shell and deadly bullets for the preservation of the Union. The regiment saw considerable service and came out of the war with honors won. Co. E. of the regiment, was organized in this city and among the soldier boys in its ranks were C. L.
Valentine and H. S. Ames. Today, on the fortieth anniversary of breaking camp, the regiment held a reunion in Milwaukee.

Attend Delavan Assembly

Archie Crawford and family, A.
W. Hall and family and Miss Alice Olinthorpe went to Delavan lake today to attend the assembly. They will go into camp on the assembly grounds. Another camping party will go to the lake tomorrow to remain through the assembly. This party will include Rev. and Mrs. W.
Woodside and son Forest, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cannon, Miss Myrtle Pat-tall and Miss Winston.

PIONEERSETTLER OF ROCK COUNTY

Mrs. John Fish, One of the Oldest
Women in This Section, Dead—Lived on Evansville Road.

A pioneer settler of Rock county and one of the oldest women in its borders died this noon at 12:30 o'- clock when Mrs. John Fish closed her eyes in the sleep that knows no waking on earth. Her death, which occurred at her home in the town of Center, nine miles from this city, at her home on the Evansville road, brought to a close a life that for ninety years has been a blessing to relatives and friends. Mrs. Fish came to Rock county from Auburn, N. Y., about 1850 and has resided in the county for over half a century. Her husband, one of the county's prominent farmers, preceded her to the land beyond the grave several years ago. The deceased woman leaves two sons, Esli and Manley Fish, both of Rock county, and two daughters, Mrs. Will Turnball, of Racine, and Mrs. Hattie Blanchard, who resides near Clinton, South Dakota.

Deceased was an aunt of Eugene T.
M. C. Charles and Miss Phoebe Fish, of this city. Their father was a member of a family of twelve children and Mrs. John Fish was the last surviving member of those who belonged to the large family of brothers and sisters either by ties of blood or of marriage. The nephews and nieces who mourn her loss now have neither aunt nor uncle on the paternal side of the family.

Funeral services will be held from the home on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the interment will be in Oak Hill cemetery.

MANY FUNERALS ARE HELD TODAY

The Procession to the Cemetery Was Almost Continuous—More
Will Be Held Tomorrow.

Mrs. Bridget Holloran.

Funeral services for the late Mrs.
Bridget Holloran, brief announcement of whose death was made in last evening's Gazette, will be held from her home, 64 Railroad street, tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock and from St.
Mary's church at 9:30 o'clock. Deceased had resided in this city for nearly half a century. Her maiden name was Bridget Lillis and she was born in the county Clare, Ireland, seventy-four years ago. She came to America over fifty years ago and in 1855 she came to this city where she has since resided. In 1858 she was married to Thomas Holloran, the ceremony being performed at St. Patrick's church by Rev. Father Conroy.

There are left to mourn her loss one daughter, Mrs. Anna Sullivan, one grand daughter, Mrs. Harry O. Olson and one brother, Patrick Lillis, all of this city.

Mrs. John Heagney
Those letters were read at his meeting. Heagney was tenderly laid in the last resting place in Mount Olivet cemetery. Funeral services for the deceased were held from the home, 1 North Hickory street, at 8:30 o'clock and from St. Mary's church at nine o'clock. Rev. Father W. A. Goebel conducted the services which were largely attended by sympathizing friends. The pall bearers were John Riley, Bernard Dugan, Patrick Mc-Ginley, Patrick Cantwell, John Cone and Patrick Enright.

Ethel Marie Healey
The little form of Ethel Marie Healey, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
T. E. Healey, in its flower laden casket was laid away in earth's bosom at Mount Olivet cemetery this morning. Rev. Father W. A. Goebel officiated at her last sad rites and spoke words of sympathy to the bereaved parents and the sorrowing friends who gathered at St. Mary's church at 10 o'clock this morning. The pall bearers were Thomas Gavaney, Neil Haganey, John O'Grady and Walter Caemmerer.

Funeral of Mrs. Wm. Hell
The funeral of the late Mrs. Wm.
Hell was held from the home of her son-in-law, Fred Kerl, 156 Park avenue, this afternoon at two o'clock, and from St. Patrick's German Lutheran church, at 2:30 o'clock. Rev.
C. J. Koerner was the officiating clergyman and a large number of the friends of the deceased woman were present to pay the last tribute of respect to her memory. The interment was in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mrs. John Wilkins Funeral
Funeral services for the late Mrs.
John Wilkins, whose death occurred at her home, 112 Galena street, yesterday, will be held from St. Patrick's church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. There are left to mourn her loss four daughters and two sons,
Mrs. John Sullivan, Mrs. James Spohn, Mrs. Kate Williams, Miss Lizzette Wilkins, Daniel Wilkins and John Wilkins, all of this city.

son of 1901-2. The paper was issued by County Clerk Starr today.

Payment Plan Fixed.

Washington, July 23.—Welcome news from Peking was cabled to the State Department by Commissioner Rockhill. It is that a plan for the payment of the indemnity to the powers has finally been adopted by the diplomats and accepted by China.

Payment is to be by means of a bond issue, and final liquidation of the heavy financial obligation to the interested nations is to be secured by the system of amortization, or the establishment of a sinking fund, which will steadily grow as time progresses. The bonds are to be redeemed in 1940.

HOW TO MASTER A GRIEF
"Everyone can master a grief, but he that has it."

There are a whole lot of griefs and grieving which are done over split mills—in other words, griefs of a financial nature, and are not such terrible bogies as those who make moan over them would have us believe. The man who is afflicted thus should tell his troubles to an Aetna Life Insurance man and if the Aetna Life man can't help him, his case is chronic.

WILD WEST KEEPS ELKS AT HOME

A Good Many of Them Did Not Go to Milwaukee This Morning on Account of the Show.

Owing largely to the fact that Buffalo Bill and his wild west aggregation are in the city, a great many of the Elks who are going to Milwaukee to attend the carnival will not be able to get away until tomorrow.

The coming of a circus to town always means at least a possibility of increased business and business men did not
ficial train which left this morning.

An extra car was added to the 8 o'clock Chicago & Northwestern train this morning and the Janesville delegation was joined at Milton Junction by a crowd of about thirty from Edgerton. Some of the carnival participants went to Milwaukee this morning over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road.

The Elks who attend the carnival from this city will wear handsome purple and gold badges. The broad purple ribbon bears the name of the Janesville lodge in gilt lettering. On the bar is a gold badge in relief and suspended from it is a med

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

hay on Sugar river flats, as it is drying up rapidly.

Oliver Helen caught his foot in his hay rake and was seriously hurt on Tuesday. He is doing well under Dr. Fleck's care.

Mrs. John Bryce, an old resident of Avon, is seriously ill at her home in Brodhead, with no hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. James Taylor was taken worse Thursday. Mrs. Ladd of Beloit, is helping care for her.

Dr. Bolton will preach at the Avon M. E. church July 28th at 2 p. m.

The R. N. A. of Century camp will give a basket social in W. A. hall Wednesday evening, July 24th. A prize will be given to the lady appearing in the prettiest calico costume.

CLINTON.

Clinton, July 22.—One of the most pleasing socials given by the United Workers took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Snyder last Friday evening. The evening was charming in every respect and the ladies served the supper on the lawn which all pronounced fine, after which the brass band favored the company with several fine selections. Some of the young people engaged in the games of lawn tennis, croquet, etc., others inspected the springs which have made the farm famous, and the time came all too quickly for the company to disperse. The proceeds were nearly twenty-three dollars.

The St. Paul road is doing its best to accommodate the traveling public. The 7:40 train going east will run through to Delavan carrying those who wish to attend the assembly, making it convenient for those who wish to attend for a day, returning at evening.

Among Clintonites at Delavan lake are Mr. O. F. Kemmerer's family, Mrs. A. Woodard and Misses Fannie and Mary Woodard.

Owing to the change in time of the C. & N. W. time table some of our citizens have got left of late. Remember the 9:06 rescheduled train north now leaves at 8:50.

Dr. Mary Montgomery is in the East. While she is away Dr. Ella Bliss has charge of her patients.

Miss Fannie Woodard went up to Janesville from Delavan lake Thursday to attend the golf tournament.

R. W. Cheever attended a meeting of the supreme directors of the Mystic Workers of the World at Fulton last week.

A great many are planning to attend the assembly at Delavan Lake this season. Many will remain through the session.

Mrs. Louis Gilbertson is very poorly. Her sister, Mrs. Tulley, of Chicago, has had the care of her for several weeks.

Mrs. L. L. Olds has been confined to her bed for over a week. On account of the absence of Rev. T. J. Parsons last Sunday there were no services.

Mrs. G. W. Irish has been assisting in the care of her sister at Kings, Ill., who is very sick. It is expected that the new telephone line to Emerald Grove will be put up this week.

Mrs. Earle has been receiving a visit from her sister, Mrs. W. D. Scott of Racine.

Dr. Bosworth of Beloit occupied the pulpit of the M. E. church last Sunday a. m.

Mrs. W. S. Davidson of Janesville was here visiting last week. A fine eleven pound boy has arrived to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Woodman.

HARMONY.

Harmony, July 23.—The Misses Heald, of Shopiere, visited relatives in this vicinity the latter part of last week.

The grain is nearly all cut and the hum of the threshing machine is heard.

Edith Hoag came home from Newville on Sunday last.

Mrs. Wm. Alderman and Hazel Randall visited at E. M. Martin's the past week.

Mrs. Herman Henke and children, of Chicago, are visiting relatives. Frank Betts, who has been working in Beloit for the past year and a half is home on a visit. He starts this week for South Dakota where he expects to stay for some time.

BARKERS CORNERS.

Barkers Corners, July 23.—L. S. Flagler, of Eau Claire, is staying at Joe Flagler's.

Miss Jessit Spencer and Gertrude Brown, of Janesville, are spending a part of their vacation at J. R. Flagler's.

Rev. Cain was unable to go Lima and Newville Sunday.

Everybody is looking for rain and I guess if they will stop watching for it it will come.

There isn't any church next Sunday afternoon. Rev. and Mrs. Cain are in Madison attending the assembly.

TURTLE.

Turtle, July 23.—The general condition of the crops is good in the town of Turtle excepting corn and potatoes. Can't tell how corn will come out yet. It looks well so far.

Those replanting tobacco are C. W. Yates, Henry Thompson, Will Knipshild and others. A good many have sown millet and planted corn on tobacco land. Those having partial loss are Rubin Roth and James Truesdell, oats hurt by hail. Estimated yield of tobacco, 500 pounds per acre set. Corn 20 bushels per acre, hay, half ton per acre; potatoes, ten bushels per acre; small grain, half crop.

Headaches, dizzy spells, bad blood, rheumatism, indigestion, constipation, absolutely cured if you take Rocky Mountain Tea made by Madison Medicine Co. Smith's pharmacy.

Very Low Rates to Elks Carnival, Milwaukee, via C. M. & St. P. R'y. July 22 to 25 inclusive, good to return until July 27. For rates, time of trains etc., call at passenger station.

LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

HEAT RECORDS ARE SMASHED

One Hundred Degrees Temperature Throughout Corn Belt.

SCATTERING SHOWERS COME.

Rains Are Too Widely Distributed to Benefit the Country at Large—Des Moines and Springfield Report 108 Degrees in the Shade.

Washington, D. C., July 23.—One hundred degree temperatures were common throughout the great corn belt, according to the reports to the weather bureau here. In various places in Illinois, Iowa, and other states, all previous records were smashed. There appears to be no prospect of decided relief from these exhausting conditions for the next two days at least, except such as may come from the always present possibility of scattered thunder-storms, which are predicted for some portions of the superheated area. Thunder-storms, accompanied by rain, have prevailed in certain sections of the west—hundreds of miles apart. They temporarily cooled the atmosphere, but brought no relief to the famishing crops. Absolutely no rain fell in the corn belt, according to the official reports received here. In western Iowa it was a trifle cooler today, while in the central portion of the state it was warmer. There is a little belt of high pressure over the great lakes, and another over the South Atlantic coast, but it offers no prospect of relief in the west so long as the low pressure remains in the northwest. The warm weather again was general throughout the entire country, except on the Pacific coast. In the east, the temperature, while high, did not approach anywhere the extremes prevailing in the west, and a recurrence of the hot wave of two weeks ago is believed to be unlikely in the Atlantic coast region. Thunder showers have continued from the South Atlantic coast westward into Arizona, and a continuation of them is predicted for the south and southwest. In Des Moines, Iowa, the temperature officially reported for the day was 108; in Springfield, Ill., 108; in Cincinnati, 106, and in Louisville, 106, in each case breaking all past records. In Indianapolis it also was 106—five degrees higher than ever before reported. In St. Louis it was 106; Omaha, 104; Bismarck, N. D., 104, and Concordia, Kas., 102. In the east Boston reported a temperature of 94 degrees; New York 90; Philadelphia, 88, and Washington, 93.

What Drought Cost the Markets.
Shrinkage in stocks, $39,397,500. Shrinkage in wheat production, 15,000,000 bushels. What farmers will lose on wheat, $10,000,000. Shrinkage in corn production, 200,000,000 bushels. What farmers will lose on corn, $80,000,000.

What Western States Will Lose
Kansas—Fifty per cent of its corn crop. Kentucky—Half its corn, hemp and tobacco crops. Illinois—Twenty per cent of its corn. Indiana—Thirty per cent of late crops. Iowa—Twenty-five per cent of its corn. Missouri—Seventy-five per cent of its corn. Nebraska—Fifty per cent of late crops.

Heavy Rains in Missouri.
Kansas City, Mo., July 23.—Heavy rains have fallen over most of western and northwestern Missouri. The downpour extended as far north along the Missouri river valley as the Iowa line. Rain fell heavily in Kansas City last night, breaking a drought of twenty-eight days' duration. Christian people stoutly assert that the rains have come as an answer to the 900 People who Obtained Free Sample Bottles of Coke Dandruff Cure at Smith Drug Co.'s Drug Store, Report.

Hundreds of people who obtained a Free Sample of Coke Dandruff Cure at Smith Drug Co.'s drug store, on July 5 and 6, make their reports. All but 10 have either been entirely cured or greatly benefited. Many of these reported live in towns outside of Janesville. They report that Coke Dandruff Cure has created a sensation in their towns; in fact, we have reason to believe that wherever the Janesville newspapers circulate to the public that the A. R. Bremer Co. have made in this city have been closely watched. Many letters are received daily which indicate clearly the interest being taken. Men and women who have been troubled for years with Dandruff, Falling Hair and annoying Scalp Irritations, for which they could find no cure, are rejoiced to know there is positively a cure for them. Read the praise given Coke Dandruff Cure from citizens of Washington, D. C.: "I have used Coke Dandruff Cure for the past year and found it an excellent preparation."

PRICES UP IN A TUMULT.

Corn, Oats and Wheat Advance Sharply at the Opening.

Chicago, July 23.—Corn, oats and wheat advanced sharply on the board of trade, price fluctuations at times bordering on the sensational. The pits were crowded to the limit with perspiring brokers, who, sans coats, sans vests, sans collars, shouted themselves hoarse attempting to fill buying orders. Wheat and oats opened nearly 2 cents higher and corn 2 to 4 cents. There was buying by the professional short, who, accustomed to take his profits and his losses alike without an extra pulse beat, bid sharply, but calmly, to make his speculative loss as light as possible; but there was also buying of another kind—for the farmer whose once promising fields are dead under the scouring skies. In the corn pit this demand was most prominent. In Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, in parts of Iowa and in other sections where the visitation of the heat horror, as they are beginning to call it, has been most pitiless, the farmers hopeless of anything but loss of money and most of their season's work want grain as food for their cattle. Not only must food be bought in distant markets, but in many sections a pond of water is as precious as a jewel, and must be well paid for by the man whose parched acres contain no such prize.

Governor Durbin, in letter to State Department, denied story that Italian Consul was refused admission to hospital at Peru, Ind., where injured Italians were cared for.

MANY BOGUS BANK BILLS.

Old Plates Have Fallen Into Hands of Counterfeiters.

Washington, July 23.—Chief Wilkie of the secret service received a number of bank notes printed from the original plates used by the state bank of New Brunswick, N. J., over fifty years ago. The bank went out of existence some time in the fifties, and it was supposed that the steel plates from which its notes were printed were destroyed. It seems, however, that these plates have fallen into the hands of parties who have printed from them large quantities of notes which have been put into circulation from New York to San Francisco. A very large percentage of the notes so far discovered are two, although some ones and fives are being sent in. Inasmuch as the notes are not counterfeit of any United States note or obligation the makers and passers cannot be prosecuted under the United States laws, but it is said they can be punished for fraud under the state laws. It appears that the notes readily pass along the Canadian border as the notes of the Canadian province of New Brunswick, the words "New Jersey" being printed in small letters. The notes are printed on bond paper and are quite as good in every way as the originals. It is said that possibly $2,000,000 of these notes are in circulation.

Steamer Reported Sinking.

Saginaw, Mich., July 23.—The steamer City of New Baltimore, Captain Maher, which runs between Saginaw and Tawas, is reported sinking in the channel of the river near Carrollton. She is supposed to have struck a snag. The tug A. C. McLean has gone down to take off the passengers and crew.

Kansas City Concern Falls.

Kansas City, July 23.—The Traders' Grain company of this city stopped payment today, and it is said the liabilities amount to $150,000. The company operated on a capital of $20,000. The failure was caused by the advance in both corn and wheat, aided by the heavy buying orders of country customers.

ONE KILLED, 19 ARE INJURED

A Serious Wreck on the Mexican Central.

NAMES OF THE VICTIMS.

Pullman Car Becomes Detached and Runs Away Near El Paso—Stops When Brakes Are Set—Pursuing Train Crashes Into Coach, Overturning It.

El Paso, Tex., July 23.—One man killed and nineteen injured was the result of a passenger wreck on the Mexican Central railroad, seventy miles from El Paso, at 1 o'clock p. m. The dead man is an unknown Mexican. Twelve of the injured were Americans going into the republic. The injured are: Miss Ethel Plerson, Kansas City, slight wound on head and side; Miss Bessie Gatlin, Kansas City, back and hip hurt; Mrs. Lucy McCormick Carnes, Oak Cliff, Dallas, nose broken; Mrs. Josie McKinney, Oklahoma City, broken ribs and back hurt; Juan Carmargo, banker, City of Mexico, head cut; John M. Duthie, El Paso, ankle broken; Mrs. Duthie, El Paso, arm broken; John W. Ellsworth, San Francisco, internally; Sol Luna, Albuquerque, face cut; A. H. Parker, El Paso, internally; Jeff McLeomore, Austin; C. A. Keenan, San Antonio; Juan Flores and Jose Huilido, iron manufacturers, Durango, Mexico, slight cuts. Six of the injured may die. The wreck occurred in a most peculiar manner. The south and north-bound trains met at a side track, and a car was switched from one train to another, when the Pullman car on the south-bound train started of its own weight back down a long grade. It had gone nearly a mile, and was gaining speed, when the engineer started after it with two cars attached to his engine. The Pullman car had gone five miles when the brakeman got his brakes to working and stopped it. The engine was gaining fast and making forty-five miles an hour when the brakes on the train failed to work, and the train ran into the Pullman, wrecking it completely.

Five Trainmen Injured.

Cleveland, O., July 23.—A heavy freight train on the Big Four road ran into a heavily loaded passenger train at Columbia station, eighteen miles west of Cleveland. Five trainmen were hurt, but not seriously. The injured are: Station Agent Harris of Bellefontaine; C. Rath, 1360 Lorain street, Cleveland; J. F. Clark, mail clerk, Cincinnati, and two other railroad men, whose names were not learned.

Another Wreck Victim Dies.

Kansas City, Mo., July 23.—Miss Ora J. Tallman of Valparaiso, Ind., died at University hospital at 2:45 o'clock a. m., being the twenty-third victim of the Chicago & Alton train wreck to succumb. She was on her way to the Epworth League convention at San Francisco when injured.

Mysterious Girl Identified.

Goshen, Ind., July 23.—The mystery surrounding Irene Canning, the 16-year-old girl who so mysteriously appeared here last Wednesday, and whose identity the police have been endeavoring to discover, was cleared up today by a message from Barre, Vt., stating that she is a girl who ran away from East Barre last winter.

36th SEASON BEGINS SEPT. 9.

The Chicago Musical College is the largest and most complete school of its kind in America. Has the strongest faculty ever assembled in a school of musical learning. The new College Building is the finest structure in existence devoted exclusively to a musical institution. The system of instruction and arrangement of courses represent the outcome of thirty-five years of experience. The terms of tuition are the lowest commensurate with the high-grade of instruction.

NOTE—Application for the $7.00 and $50.00 partial scholarships will be received until August 10.

One Man Saved

From a wreck will attract the world's attention to the life-saver. Yet let the life-saving be continued every day, and very soon it attracts no public attention. If the scene of the saving of one life by that life-saving remedy, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, could be made to stand alone, like a picture on a screen, it would attract the notice of the whole nation. By a curious contradiction the very frequency with which the "Discovery" saves life, robs the fact of general interest. For obstinate coughs, bronchitis, weak lungs, and other diseases of the respiratory organs, "Golden Medical Discovery" is the one medicine which offers certain help, and almost certain cure. It contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

"Only for Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I think I would be in my grave to-day," writes Mr. Moses Miles, of Hilliard, Uinta Co., Wyoming. "I had asthma so bad I could not sleep and was compelled to give up work. It affected my lungs so that I could not all the time, both day and night. My friends all thought I had consumption. My wife insisted on my trying 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I have taken four bottles and am now a well man, weighing 185 pounds—thanks to Dr. Pierce."

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

FOUR DIE IN PITTSBURG FIRE.

Mother and Three Children Perish in Tenement Blaze.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 23.—A whole family was burned in a Penn avenue tenement fire shortly before 8 o'clock. The mother and three children are dead and the husband is badly burned and is now at the hospital. The explosion of an oil can was the cause of the fire. The dead are: Mrs. Sophia Ratza, aged 30 years, horribly burned about the entire body; mother of the children; Viola Ratza, aged 8 years, oldest daughter, burned and smothered by flame and smoke; Kashner Ratza, a boy, aged 5 years, smothered and burned. The injured: Francis Ratza, husband and father of the family, badly burned and removed to the West Penn hospital. It is said he will recover. From what can be learned Mrs. Ratza was preparing breakfast in her apartments on the third floor of the tenement house in the rear of 2716 Penn avenue shortly before 8 o'clock this morning. The fire in the kitchen stove was not burning as quickly as she wanted it to and she took an oil can and poured some of the oil on the fire. In a moment a blaze from the grate of the stove ignited the oil in the can and an explosion, which was heard throughout the house, followed.

FAIR HEIRS GET MILLIONS.

Judge Orders Distribution of Late Senator's Personal Property.

San Francisco, Cal., July 23. Judge Troutt has ordered the immediate distribution of $5,000,000—the personal estate of the late James G. Fair—to the three heirs—Charles L. Fair, Mrs. Herman Oetrichs and Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr. It is also stipulated that should Mrs. Nettie R. Craven establish that she is the legal widow of Fair she shall share in this reservation. Judge Troutt's decision practically settles the long fight between Senator Fair's three children and the executors named in his will, unless the executors appeal to the supreme court. By a trust clause in Fair's will all his property was placed in the hands of three executors in trust for his children. As the supreme court had held this invalid, the children of Fair contended this decision applied to the personal as well as the real estate of their father. Except for the possibility of an appeal to the supreme court, the decision by Judge Troutt settles the long controversy between the executors and the Fair children.

TROUBLE GROWS IN CHINA.

Uprising in Thirty Districts in Chi-Li Province.

London, July 23.—A dispatch from Pekin says: "Dissatisfaction caused by banditti is prevalent in thirty districts in the central part of the province of Chi-Li. The local officials are either disinclined or unable to suppress the troubles. Li Hung Chang as viceroy is too busy to attend the provincial matters. The troops sent against the banditti showed sympathy for them, many of them having formerly been soldiers. They are better armed than the troops. In a recent conflict a hundred soldiers and officers were killed. The troops of Yuan Shih Kai, governor of Shantung, are the only ones that can be trusted to act. The result of dispatching some of them to quell the dissatisfaction is not yet known. Even if successful in one district an uprising is likely to occur as soon as they depart for another. Complete pacification will be extremely difficult. Official appeals are constantly reaching Li Hung Chang."

Boer Attack in Colony.

Cape Town, July 23.—A number of the Boers who are invading the Cape Colony began an attack on Aberdeen at 7 o'clock one evening last week. They obtained excellent shelter in a donga, but their fire was ineffective. The militia, a portion of the town guard, under Captain Miller of the North Lancaster Regiment, advanced steadily under a heavy fire and drove the Boers from their position. One of the Boers retreated precipitately. One of the British was wounded. The Boers renewed their attack the following night.

Clark After Russian Copper.

St. Petersburg, July 23.—United States Senator W. A. Clark, according to the Novoe Vremya, has joined with Kieff capitalists in establishing a copper company having a capital of 15,000,000 rubles. Mr. Clark supplying 12,000,000 rubles. With M. Margolin, one of the directors, Mr. Clark is going to Semipalatinsk to examine the mines there.

Hent Maddens and Killis.

St. Joseph, Mich., July 23.—During the last twenty-four hours four prostrations have been reported. Mrs. C. M. Cornwell of Chicago died. Frank Furlong became insane. Frank Baker of Chicago fell from a bicycle in a faint. The fourth victim was Mrs. Charles Hanson, who became insane and drove her husband from the house with an ax. Before she could be quiet she destroyed all the furniture and windows in the house. The temperature registered from 102 to 104 in the shade.

THE KAZOO

What Is It?

It is the latest and most complete device in boy suspenders and hose supporters combined that has ever been brought to the attention of mothers who desire to avoid the annoyance of their boys' hose coming unfastened or hose supporter giving out continually.

It is made of the very best and strongest material, using rubber cord of 72 strands, which outwears any elastic web that can be produced. Also we use the Cyclone grip for the hose, which avoids any possibility of their coming unfastened or of cutting the hose. It is made adjustable, so you may hold the hose perfectly smooth. The suspender part buttons as does other suspenders, with same 72 strand rubber strand cord for ends which does not lose the elasticity as does the common web suspender, thereby avoiding the annoyance of having the buttons pull off because of the stretch being out of the suspender, as this end holds its elasticity till worn out.

The prices on the Kazoo is only 50 cents and 75 cents, and the fact that they will outwear any other suspender or supporter by great odds, makes them the most economical article ever offered in this line. They are made in sizes from 4 to 14.

Do not economize by allowing your boy to wear common elastic around the limb, as you endanger the health by stopping the circulation and increase the doctor bill.

NOTICE!

Now that the wall paper rush is over, we are better able than ever to care for your wants. The treatment of wall papers nowadays differs widely from the old-fashioned methods. They are adjusted to the walls and their surroundings with the same care for artistic effect that the artist gives when applying his colors to the canvas. Floral designs are cut out and applied with all the effectiveness of a mural painting; striped designs are prettily mired and made to yield a much handsomer effect than their cost would intimate. Inexpensive papers for bedrooms are handled in many ingenious ways; for example, rooms with low ceilings are made to look higher, or by another treatment the reverse effect is produced. Such work, of course, must be done by experts; and we employ skilled artists and designers to assist our customers in making selections and give helpful advice on all subjects referring to interior decoration.
